

Contents

Foreword

Preface

Part 1: Single mission workers from different cultures

Voices from Western Europe

1. Lessons learned in ninety years (Dr Marjory Foyle)
2. My single mission: Loving and serving God (Rev. Tim Herbert)

Voices from South America

3. Longing for protection, like a newborn bird (Verônica Farias)
4. The pain of saying goodbye (Telma Santos)
5. An Argentinian working with the Japanese in London (Anny Rosciani-Woodhams)
6. A single mission worker in turbulent times (Antonia van der Meer)

Voices from Asia

7. Why aren't you married? Asian single men in missions (Philip Chang)
8. Where is my helper? A Chinese woman in Central Asia (Little Dove)
9. Community in Cambodia (Chami)
10. Being shot in Nepal and India (Debbie)

Voices from Africa (see chapter 33 for another voice from Africa)

11. A Zambian mission worker's single journey (Annie)
12. From Namibia to the ends of the earth (Martha)
13. Singled out in Cameroon (Marius)

Voice from the Middle East

14. A single woman in the Middle East (Melinda)

Voice from Eastern Europe

15. Single parent – is mission impossible? (Paula)

Voices from North America

16. The joy of children and friendship (Eunice Hill)
17. Returning 'home' to care for parents (Deb Rupe)

Voice from Australasia

18. Papua New Guinea back to Australia (Joy Atkinson)

Part 2: Sexuality

19. Scantly clad temptation in Burundi (Simon Guillebaud)
20. Single in South-East Asia (Dr Glenn Miles and Dr Debbie Hawker)
21. Why cross-cultural mission is high-risk for sexual challenges (Dr Roni Pruitt)
22. Sexual desire (Dr Roni Pruitt and Dr Debbie Hawker)
23. Masturbation (Dr Debbie Hawker)
24. Pornography (John Steley)
25. Same-sex attraction, homosexuality and bisexuality (Dr Debbie Hawker)
26. Sacred sexuality: A positive view of single sexuality (Dr Roni Pruitt)

Part 3: The journey from singleness to marriage (and, for some, back to singleness)

27. Waiting, dating, or stating that you are called to be single (Dr Debbie Hawker and Rev. Tim Herbert)
28. Love on-line (Jo Swinney and Dr Debbie Hawker)
29. Against all odds: How one woman found love over the internet (Lizzie)

30. Dating during cross-cultural ministry (Dr Roni Pruitt and Janet Fraser-Smith)
31. Journeying on (Dr Debbie Hawker)
32. Open doors: Can God use a married woman? Can God use a widow? (Dr Lois Dodds)
33. Singleness and widowhood: Married for two weeks (Catherine Bezold)
34. Single for the second time, after separation or divorce (Dr Debbie Hawker)

Part 4: What we know about single people in ministry

35. Cold comfort: What not to say to single mission workers (Alison Clarke)
36. Isn't it better if single people stay home (Dr Jessie Ritchey and Dr Debbie Hawker)
37. Understanding and enhancing the resilience of single mission personnel (Dr Nancy Crawford and Dr Karen Carr)
38. Singularly significant: The value of single people in ministry (Dr Debbie Hawker)
39. Issues to consider prior to starting cross-cultural ministry (or changing team) (Dr Debbie Hawker)
40. Conclusion: Responding to the challenges and reaping the benefits of being a single mission worker (Drs Debbie and David Hawker)

Appendices

1. Topics to discuss if you are considering a cross-cultural marriage (Janet Fraser-Smith)
2. Useful resources (Dr Debbie Hawker)
3. 40 ideas for coping with loneliness and sad times (Dr Debbie Hawker)
4. Abuse (Dr Debbie Hawker)

Footnotes